JAPAN MAKES FORMAL PROTEST AT WASHINGTON

There Is a Suspicion that the Ship Came to American Waters with the Express Purpose of Testing the Attitude of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 .- Japan has formally protested to the U States against allowing the Russian auxiliary cruiser- Lena to remain port longer than twenty-four hours. Through her Consul at San Pr cisco the complaint was filed with the Collector of the Por. who late to-de wired for instructions.

Either deliberately and with the purpose of embarrassing the U States, or through accident, the Russians have placed this country in position which the State and Treasury departments have been ince international complications arose over the shelter of fugitive men-of-war in Chefoo, in Shanghai and in the German Kiachow Bay.

The Government has met the emergency promptly, however. The ing authorities on international law have all agreed that there is no re for this country to act differently than have the German, French and Ch

Whether the Russian Government they must get out forthwith if the Lena is fit for sea. If she is must remain at anchor until the war is over. There will be no from this course.

There is a well-grounded suspicion that the Lena came to San Pro cisco for the specific purpose of forcing a ruling from the United S She will get one with the greathest swiftness. There appears to be course other than that agreed upon in this city to-day.

It is a matter of general regret in official circles that the sit It was hoped that the Russians would n the intensity of feeling which they have held toward this country the war began, by forcing the United States to stand on the rec Geler hit a slow one to Gilbert and laws of neutrality. Since they have done it they must take the con-

It is generally believed that the Russians will palaver as long as sible and then accept the inevitable, as they have done in size gencies elsewhere. The Russian claim to unusual indulgence will be it is believed, on the ground that the Lena is a transport only. The thorities of the State Department declare to-day that international las recognizes no difference between a transport and a battle-ship if the fo is armed as the Lena is. As a matter of fact, the armament of the B sian makes her more of a cruiser than a transport. She is quite a s midable proposition, and the slightest concession to her would raise terrific protest from the Japanese Government. If the Lena decides to the up until the end of the war her crew p
